

Want to learn more about Voice Care &
Science?

As you have perhaps heard, a European Academy of Voice has been founded by the PEVOC Advisory Board. It consists of 11 members representing different fields of expertise within the voice field. They asked us to plan and organize the Academy's activities.

The Academy will arrange a one-day Voice Care and Science Tutorial on Tuesday, August 29, 2017 just before PEVOC in Ghent. As you can see below it will consist of eight interactive workshops. Each workshop is taught by experts, renowned for their superb pedagogical talent. Participants will receive in advance a short syllabus describing the contents of the workshops.

After completing the entire tutorial, participants will receive a signed certificate. The fee for participation will be 90 Euros. For details see www.european-academy-of-voice.org.

Welcome to the fourth European Academy of Voice one-day tutorial!
